

The project name 'Harambee', that means "Work Together" in swahili language, expresses the intention to avoid any charity, working all together !!!

The Italian and African people, work together with the same level of dignity, with the aim of improving the welfare among the Kenyan communities, but also to understand and grow each other...

The main feature of project is that one to avoid welfarism and, on the contrary, to help local people to develop independently. The first problem to resolve in order to carry welfare was that one of the water: the aqueduct built has led... Drinkable water available on a large region for about 20.000 people and the Decrease of infectious diseases!
